Dear Hiring Manager,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my strong interest in pursuing an internship in role of Test Automation Developer CO-OP/Intern at your company. With a background in Release Management and QA & Test Engineering, combined with my passion for software development, I am eager to contribute my skills and dedication to your team.

My name is Aswini Sasi Kanth, and I am currently enrolled in the Mobile App Development PG Diploma program at Lambton College in Toronto. My journey in the field of IT began in India, where I gained valuable experience working at Cognizant and Neteracker Technologies over 5 years. During my time at Cognizant, I served as a Release Manager for over three years, where I honed my skills in planning, coordination, risk management, and quality assurance for software releases. In that project, I got chance to work with DevOps team on setting up CICD pipelines to automate deployments for our 45 clients. I got chance to understand and do CICD setup on Azure platform. I believe the knowledge I gained on Jenkins, CICD will definitely pay back me when I work again on similar technologies. Subsequently, I transitioned to the role of an Automation QA Test Engineer, where I developed a deep understanding of testing methodologies, automation tools, and quality assurance best practices.

My professional journey reflects my commitment to continuous learning and career growth. Relocating to Canada to pursue further education was a significant step towards expanding my horizons and achieving my career aspirations. As a student again, I learned and applied my knowledge on Mobile App Development in Android and IOS, SDLC & SDTC, Web-development.

I am confident that my background, work ethic, passion, and self-motivation to learn new technologies align well with the values and goals of your company. I am eager to discuss how my skills and experiences can benefit your organization further. Thank you for considering my application.

Enclosed are my portfolio and resume within, which provides additional details about me along with my resume. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you and learn more about the Co-Op opportunity.

Sincerely,
Aswini Sasi kanth. K
